SIGNING FRIENDS - BROWNIE LEVEL
GSCSNJ PATCH PROGRAM

Purpose: Discover how people use sign language to communicate! You'll learn the basics of American Sign Language (ASL), play games, and explore what life is like when you can't rely on hearing.

To earn this Patch, complete 4 activities. The starred activity is required.

01. ★ Learn the American Manual Alphabet. Practice finger spelling your name and the names of your friends or family.

02. Sing and Sign! Learn the signs or actions to at least two songs and perform one for your troop or family.

03. Play Signing Games! Choose two: Charades, Finger Spelling Bee, Wild Duck Finger Spelling Game, I Spy, or Sign a Tale.

04. Learn About Deaf Culture. Read a story or watch a short video about Deaf culture and discuss what you learned.

05. Count in Sign Language. Learn to count to 10 using ASL.

06. Sound Waves Experiment. Try two ways to feel sound, such as touching a radio or speaking while feeling your throat

★ Reflection: How can you help someone who is deaf or hard of hearing feel included at school or in your troop?

- Celebrate Scouts' completion of their level with a sing-along or ASL performance.
- Reflect on how learning sign language fosters connection, inclusion, and understanding among people.
- Encourage Scouts to continue exploring ASL and engaging with Deaf culture beyond earning their badge.
